

McClinchy Mile Bicycle Ride

Sunday, March 20, 2016
Arlington, Washington

Rain, Snow, or Sunshine

B.I.K.E.S. Club of Snohomish County invites you to explore the rural roads and quiet trails north of Seattle. Start your season on our scenic, well-supported ride through the Stillaguamish River Valley.

How far is a McClinchy Mile? That's up to you.

Choose from flat or hilly routes: 34, 48, 52 or 100 miles.

Food stops (hot drinks!), mechanical, and vehicle support.

First 200 people registered get a reflective string pack

Save $5 by signing up before March 12. Scan code or see back.

Riders can register and start from 8 - 10 a.m. Sunday, March 20.

Helmets are required for safety.

McClinchy Mile Bicycle Ride

Sunday, March 20, 2016

Haller Middle School, 600 E. First St., Arlington

Register / Start between 8 – 10 a.m.

Flat or hilly routes of 34, 48, 52 and 100 miles

McClinchy Mile supports recreational bicycling, advocacy, and bike-related local grants through B.I.K.E.S. Club of Snohomish County. We have hosted the ride for more than 30 years – weather depends on the luck o’ the Irish!

Did you miss last year’s memorial ride for the people and communities affected by the Oso Landslide? Self-Guided Saturday is your chance to support Stillaguamish Valley tourism and business. See our website for no-host rides via Hwy. 530 to Oso and Darrington, on the 30-mile Centennial Trail, or on the unpaved Whitehorse Trail. Lots to explore!
